Redevelopment Agency Criticism Is 'Premature'

By FRANK LaPIERRE

Establishment of a redevelopment agency by the Daly City Council has split the community into two distinct districts with the Junipero Serra Freeway the physical dividing line.

Monday, the council took a second step towards actual creation of the agency when Ordinance 734 was read for the second time.

First of a Series

The ordinance declares the need for a redevelopment agency to function within the city. It also provides that the five councilmen will be that agency and will get $15 per meeting while acting in that capacity.

Officials emphasize that criticism of the agency at this time is premature inasmuch as the establishment is being moved along only to study the area east of the Junipero Serra Freeway, and not actually begin any redevelopment in the near future.

These same officials say any redevelopment in the so-called "old Daly City" area, which they now decree to be the "center city area," will come only after a series of long, well-studied and well-publicized plans. And these plans must clear many government agencies before they can proceed with physical redevelopment.

As an example, the city must have a clear-cut and well-organized plan for relocation of displaced families.

At Monday's meeting, Louis A. Thiehaut, director of the recently organized "Citizens to Save Old Day City" group, said persons representing themselves as a major local developer have tried to buy up properties in the Irvington Avenue area in the name of the Redevelopment Agency.

Councilman Frank Pacelli disputed the statement and said, "Someone is snowing someone."

"There has been no one designated by this city to contact people in that area," Pacelli later said. He cautioned property owners to first check with the city when approached on the subject.

But the east side of San Mateo County's second largest city has been rocked in recent weeks with rumors concerning this agency.

One homeowner at a meeting two weeks ago said he was told bulldozers were waiting to plow down homes near the Bay Area Rapid Transit station on Knowles Avenue.

City Manager David Rowe said this was "simply not true."

Asked why the city was "pushing" the establishment of the redevelopment agency, Rowe disclaimed this contention.

He said the move to get the matter before the public "is typical of the city council'd desire not to dilly-dally on public matters."

And he is not against citizen participation in the agency, Rowe said.

Why did the manager insist on setting up the five councilmen as the Redevelopment Agency, instead of a panel made up of persons outside City Hall?

Rowe said he felt the input of an appointed citizens advisory committee, coupled with the necessary public hearings, will give the city fathers the direction they need to make the project a success.

The "Why so fast?" question was asked again Monday by Mrs. Pearl Hastings, another director of the citizens group opposing the agency formation.

She was told by City Manager Rowe that the ordinance was introduced (first reading) on November 15.

Rowe said it is "not unusual" for an ordinance to have its second reading within three weeks, as in this case.

Council Splits the Community Into Two Distinct Districts

Mrs. Hastings' group contends the issue is being "railroaded" through by the council.

In an earlier statement the group alleged the city's proposal "contradicts the city's own purposes, will remove redevelopment from control by the survey area residents, and, fails to supply any information whatsoever to justify creation of an agency."

City officials claim no one area has been selected as a project area as yet.

A study will be made and the City Planning Commission will formally determine what areas will be rehabilitated—if at all.

But all indications are that the immediate area surrounding the BART station will be in the Project One area.

For years, merchants along Mission Street have complained about the lack of adequate parking, the slow deterioration of the general area, and the continual exodus of businesses there.

If not a "blighted area" at present, the general BART area is declining.

Many homes do not meet today's building codes and some are built on substandard lots. Increasing property taxes on the land are forcing many to dig deep and give up other necessities to make ends meet.

Although there has been no rezoning of properties north of the Jefferson High School since the city's General Plan was issued in 1968, land values, consequently property taxes, have increased dramatically.

This is due, undoubtedly, to the general change that has come over the potential usage of the land in the county's estimation.

A check by the city has failed to turn up any one developer or land speculator coming in and buying up blocks of property in this potential high usage area, however.

Civic groups and individuals have given their tentative stamp of approval to the ambitious project. They moderate this approval with an "if."

"If" the agency is pieced together correctly and reflects the over-all thoughts of the community at large, including those within the project areas, it will succeed.

Councilman Louis J. Papan summed it up Monday when he told the audience attending a special meeting on the issue:

"We have established the Redevelopment Agency. We will be that agency. We may disagree (with you) on some things, that's your privilege."

SSF Woman Urges Area Park Support

South San Francisco's councilmen on Monday were asked to support the intent of a resolution that states there is a need for a regional park in the North County. They didn't.

The request was made by Mrs. Bette Higgins, co-chairman of the Save San Bruno Mountain Committee. South San Francisco is one of three cities vying for an opportunity to annex the mountain for future development.

Mrs. Higgins said her group is planning to go to all three North County cities (including Brisbane and Daly City) to make the same request.

The group is curculating a petition to be presented to the County Supervisors in January urging them to utilize existing funds to purchase the property necessary to develop a regional park. LAFCO hearings on sphere of influence are scheduled for January.

Mrs. Higgins also said her group is against any proposed bond issue, calling it "another way of selling us out." She said existing money is available and if a county-wide bond issue would fail the supervisors could use that as a scapegoat for allowing development of the mountain by the Crocker Land Company.

South San Francisco Blaze Kills Woman

Former South San Francisco Councilman and Mayor Andrew Rocca's daughter died in a house fire early Friday in her father's home.

The 33-year-old Andrea Rocca Collins was found by firemen lying face down on the garage floor, apparently failing in an attempt to get out of the burning building.

Fire Chief John Marchi said his department received a phone call at about 5:55 a.m. of a blaze at 550 Poplar Avenue. Mrs. Collins was sleeping downstairs, authorities said. She had burns on her hands and face and was clad in pajamas.

Police, also arriving on the scene, said they had been informed that someone was inside, in the back bedroom of the house.

Firemen brought the victim out through a back door, and attempted to administer first aid, while rushing her to Kaiser Hospital, South San Francisco, where she was pronounced dead on arrival.

According to Chief Marchi the fire is believed to have started from smoking in bed. He said the blaze apparently had been going for some time, but hadn't been seen, and reported, until it was well involved.

The fire was confined to the downstairs area and the garage. Former Councilman Rocca and his wife were upstairs at the time, and Rocca succeeded in getting his wife out of the burning house.

Chief Marchi said the damage is estimated at $20,000, with $12,000 of that being structural and $8,000 to contents. A contingent of 20 men with two engines fought the blaze. Also perishing in the blaze were the family's two pet poodles and a cat.

Manor Drive Speed Limit Now 15 mph

A speed limit of 15 miles an hour now is effective for traffic westbound downhill on Manor Drive in Pacifica.

Three signs setting the reduction in speed from 25 miles an hour to 15 are the result of residents in the area insisting that they be tried out to cut accidents they claimed were caused by excessive speed.

The Health and Safety Commission recommended the 15-mile-an-hour to the city council which ordered the signs placed. Their effect will be tested for the next six months.

Manor Drive is one of the steepest hills in Pacifica with a maximum grade of 17 per cent. It is a stretch about 4,000 feet long, winding and hazardous for many areas where sight distance is minimal.

"The Health and Safety Commission may yet request council action for elimination of parking on one side of the street at various locations," said Nathaniel Marks, commission chairman. "A traffic study by the consulting firm of DeLouw, Cather and Company recommended such restriction to permit easier passage on the narrow roadway. If the reduced speed is not productive of improved safety, stronger measures may have to be used."

Marks said members of his commission have observed car owners improving cooperation by using their driveways and garages instead of the street for parking. "Parked cars cause the greatest difficulty for cars trying to pass safely in opposite directions. There are only seven and one-half feet of roadway for a car. That's not a safe enough travelway," he said.

Rehab Center Draws Bruno Complaints

By JACK BIK

Gil Whitley told San Bruno planners Monday he would withdraw his application for a Woman's Rehabilitation Center at 2190 Fleetwood Dr., because of a barrage of complaints from would-be neighbors.

It would have been the first of three such houses which the new Women's Rehabilitation Association of San Mateo County is planning to establish in San Mateo County.

He told the protestants that he was ashamed of their "holier than thou attitude," warned them that many of them or their families might some day be subject to alcoholism, and castigated the Rollingwood Homeowners' Association for opposing the permit without having contacted him first.

He said he would go on television to tell his reasons.

This remark drew more protests from the audience; several residents accused him of trying to blackmail the city. After the meeting, however, tempers

Pool Bids Double the Estimate!

The proposed Westmor swimming pool was adrift today after the principals concerned threw out bids on the project.

Both the Jefferson Union High School District and Daly City City Council decided to reject the two bids submitted after it was disclosed the bids were almost double the architect's estimate of $632,224.

Lowest bid for the enclosed pool designed by Tatarian & Haines, Architects, came from the Martinelli Construction Company of San Francisco ($1,176,800).

Joseph DiGiorgio of San Rafael bid $1,220,000.

Inflation had already been blamed by the architect for jumping the costs up to the latest estimate for the pool — a joint venture of the city-school district.

Both the school and public will be allowed to use the pool if, and when, it is built.

Meanwhile, tentative approval has been given for the planned Westlake Park Gymnasium.

The city is expected to put the matter out to bid this week, a city spokesman said. The structure will house a gymnasium for public us and public meeting facilities.

It is a joint venture between the city and Westlake Subdivisions Improvement Association (WSIA). Planning of the facility has been going on for more than four years.

Citizens' Group Questions 1963 Exchange of SSF Land

By BOB PETERSON

A South San Francisco citizens' group is questioning the wisdom of a 1963 land exchange between the city and the South San Francisco Scavenger Company.

Bob Albright, president of Citizens for Responsible Government (CRG), questioned the land swap in a letter to City Manager Gale Dreisbach.

Albright said that from what information he could obtain from the county recorder and assessor's office, the city not only received less land, but the land given to scavengers is valued at three times per square foot that of the land the city received.

Albright referred to two deeds he had obtained. One pertained to property deeded to the scavengers, identified as 1.018 acres (44,344 sq. ft.) fronting on South Airport Boulevard.

This property, roughly 120 feet frontage by 350 feet deep was recorded July 2, 1969. The assessed valuation of the one acre parcel was $32,675. Accepting that as 25 per cent of the relative market value, the parcel would be worth $130,700.

The second deed referred to by Albright was a .76 acre parcel identified as property the scavengers deeded to the city. This parcel is located on the south side of Butler Road in the Marina area.

This parcel also was recorded on July 2, 1969, identified as being a 33,000 sq. ft. parcel with an assessed valuation of $3,690. Multiplying this by four gives an approximate market value of $14,760, or $115,940 below the calculated market value of the land the scavengers apparently received.

City Attorney John Noonan had prepared a reply to Albright's letter, and reported on the matter at the Monday night council meeting.

According to Noonan, in 1962 a "trade of equal parcels" was discussed between the city and the scavengers. Noonan said the scavengers had planned to build a corporation yard on the marina-site property they owned.

He said the city indicated it did not desire to have a corporation yard at that site. This apparently led to a discussion of exchange of the city's property on South Airport Boulevard. Incidentally, the scavengers later abandoned its plan for a corporation yard on the South Airport Boulevard property and built instead on Linden Avenue.

Orville Decker, real estate appraiser from San Bruno, was hired to appraise two parcels

Two Mission Merchants' Fund Drives Lag in D.C.

Two special funds started by the Mission Merchants Association aimed at bringing a little Christmas cheer into the lives of two Daly City families are in trouble, financially.

Mission Merchants president Vince Merlo said today the public has "completely failed to respond" to the funds — one for the recently widowed mother of two whose husband and young son were killed in a house fire, and the other for a young citizen who rescued two other members of the same family.

Mrs. Billie Alfred Sabella, confined to a hospital bed after suffering a stroke prior to the fire, looks forward to a bleak Christmas and New Years.

Kenneth Dandridge, the 16-year-old who rescued Dick Cornuelle and his niece, Suzy Gettys, was to have had a school scholarship set up for him.

At least this was the hope of the Merchants and Senior Citizens' President Mrs. Virgil Davis.

To date, the results have been discouraging.

The Bank of America, Mission and San Jose Avenue branch in Daly City, can be contacted by those wishing to contribute to either or both funds.

Fight Over Station in South S.F.

South San Francisco's Westborough residents on Monday fought still another round to keep a speedy food market and a service station out of what they consider an already over-commercialized area.

Councilmen heard arguments, pro and con, for more than two hours then put the matter over until the second meeting in January.

The reason for the postponement was to give City Attorney John Noonan an opportunity to determine whether the city had a legal right to prevent service station and speedy food market use of that area.

On three other occasions a similar request was denied by the city's planning commissioners. Basis for their denial has been that the area already is overpopulated with the type of commercial development again being requested by developer Tom Callan.

Resident Don Gamma, president of the West Park Homeowners' Association, led off the opposition by producing a hand-drawn map indicating that there already are a dozen service stations within a mile radius of the proposed new station.

Councilman Patrick Ahern's comment that some of these stations were in Daly City received laughs from those in the audience. Several are in Daly City but they are right across the street from those in South San Francisco.

City Planner Dan Pass expressed strong opposition to the proposed facilities. "Of all the commercial uses available, the only requests we get are for

South San Francisco Hires An Administrative Assistant

A new administrative assistant has been selected for South San Francisco.

He is John R. (Jack) Meline, 36, presently Assistant City Manager-Personnel Director for Antioch. Meline will leave that post and join the South San Francisco staff December 16.

The position of administrative assistant to the city manager was approved in the 1971-72 budget. His assignment at city hall will be primarily that of personnel administration and purchasing.

Meline has been with the city of Antioch for three years. He had previously been a social worker for Fresno County, a public relations officer for Fresno State College Association and Fresno newspaper reporter.

Meline holds a master's degree in public administration and a bachelor of arts degree in physics. He is a Navy veteran, holding the rank of lieutenant and is the father of an eight-month-old son.

SSF Fire Chief Marchi Retiring

South San Francisco's Fire Chief John Marchi has announced that he will retire next June 30.

Marchi has been chief of the South San Francisco firefighters since April of 1962, after serving 18 years as assistant chief. He will be 65 next July.

Actually Marchi will end his duties on May 15, since he will make use of accrued vacation time.

Marchi received the "Man of the Year" award in 1952. Born July 9, 1907 in New York City, he joined the South San Francisco department when it consisted of four regulars and 25 volunteers. It now has 72 members.

Rehab Center Plan Fosters Complaints

cooled as Whitley met in the hallway with the protestants.

Presenting their program to the planners with Whitley was the president of the Women's Rehabilitation Association, Sister Ann Marie Towers, a teacher at St. Pius of Redwood City and St. Matthew's School in San Mateo.

"It won't be for inebriates," she told them. "It will be a home for wives, sisters, and mothers such as yours . . . As a teacher, I can see the devastation that women alcoholics can cause in the lives of their children."

In order to be permitted in the home, Sister Ann Marie explained, the woman must first have been sober for at least 24 hours, and want to recover. They would live in the house from six weeks to six months, while being counseled by psychologists and therapists.

"Now, after being detoxified — at a hospital, or a jail — they must go back to the same environment that may have given rise to their alcoholism. . . . Here, they'll learn to cope with reality without liquor."

Sister Ann Marie Towers and Whitley were backed with a petition signed by 208 persons from throughout San Mateo County, a telegram from Assemblyman Dixon Arnett, a letter from 49er President Louis Spadia, and letters from a number of doctors and pastors — and a large delegation of "alcoholics."

The neighbors on the block had no objection to the half-way house — just to its location.

Objections boiled down to:

1. The house is too small for its purpose.
2. It would cause a parking problem.
3. It is too far from public transportation.
4. There are no facilities in the neighborhood.

Dennis Day, 2130 Fleetwood Drive, presented over a 100 names of immediate neighbors. He read from a publication used by the WRA laying down standards for such houses. They must be near public transportation, have multiple zoning, have nearby amenities and special rooms for fixing themselves up, and for other purposes.

More About Land Exchange

that had been earmarked for exchange.

His appraisal, dated March 28, 1963, showed that both parcels involved were zoned as heavy industrial areas, and both were undeveloped lands.

The scavenger's parcel was identified as part of the city's industrial area containing 39,204 square feet with a market value of $43,140 an acre, or 99 cents a square foot, on an "asis" basis. If it were developed, the market value would go to $44,250, costs of clearing and grading and other miscellaneous improvement.

The parcel the city had intended to trade was, according to Decker's appraisal, a 70-foot frontage on the east side of South Airport Boulevard approximately 530 feet deep.

His analysis of this parcel indicated that it contained 40,250 square feet, which he valued at $1.40 a square foot, after development, of $56,750.

An "as is" apparaisal of $43,750 ($600 above the city's parcel) was given because of an estimated $13,000 cost for 7,454 cubic yards of fill necessary for the area.

According to Noonan, in 1964 there was an adjustment of the properties. The city was to give up 1.06 acres, both within the same bounds, valued at $45,000.

At this time Director of Public Works Lou Goss proposed that either the scavengers pay the difference or the properties again be changed so as to be equal.

Here the chronology seems to become a blurr.

Apparently Goss was given the task of re-evaluating the land and redefining the boundaries so as to give the scavengers a 120 foot frontage instead of an 80 foot as earlier established.

According to Noonan, Goss amended the dimensions by changing an 80 foot by 562 foot Parcel into a 120 foot by 363 foot parcel. He apparently did this by using a $2.50 a square foot figure for the fronting portions and a $1.50 figure for the rear portions, making it an equal exchange.

Goss said he does not recall what he based his cost per square foot figures on. Noonan said, "We don't pull these figures out of the air. Title problems are sometimes difficult."

Noonan said he believes that the problem is that when the descriptions were revised, for which a correction was made in 1968, the confusion set in.

Albright referred again to the two deeds he held, which indicate the the city traded a 33,105 square foot parcel for which Albright contends there is at least a $115,940 discrepancy favoring the scavenger company.

Noonan and Goss were instructed to look into the matter further. And Albright promised his organization would study it deeper, too.

More About Station

service stations and food markets," he said. "Nothing has ripped the guts out of American cities faster than overcommercialization."

He said the Westborough area is overly planned commercially and this problem can't be rectified without an increase in population.

Councilman Ahern, appearing to side with the developer, took issue with Pass. He said the city planner was responsible for the present commercial zoning.

"The council is up here like pigeons because you made a deal with Callan," said Ahern.

This was denied by Pass, who said it was Callan who kept pressuring Pass to switch the zoning of two areas in hopes of being able to push through a service station on the second area because he had failed to do so in the first.

Ahern made repeated references to the fact that the matter needed to be studied further and that all the facts were not in, although the council has delayed action on the matter for at least two years.

Gamma said he objected to Ahern's implication that the people in the audience don't know the facts, and instead are talking on emotion.

Enough Names For Referendum

A sufficient number of singaturs on a referendum petition to place on a ballot a measure to stop erection of 13 duplexes on Cunningham Way, appear to have been obtained, according to City Clerk Carl Hultberg.

Only 1200 valid signatures are needed.

He will present his report to the City Council next Monday.

The City Council may repeal the duplex rezoning, which permits homes to be built on the former right of way of Junipero Serra Boulevard.

Green Hills Reports Vandalism

A $1000 reward was being offered this morning for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the persons who dug up most of the 12th green at Green Hills Golf and Country Club in Millbrae, this weekend.

Hal Epstein, president of the club, announced the offer this morning, after viewing the damage.

A large area of the green was dug up, and ripped open, police say.

They report that a shovel and a wrecking bar were left at the scene, and were apparently the tools used in damaging the well-tended turf.

Police said the amount of damage would be difficult to determine, but that each green is "worth several thousand dollars."

Epstein said the damaged green would have to be reseeded and allowed to grow out again, and that it would be out of service for several months.

Police said the Green Hills greenskeeper reported the damage to them, Saturday morning. They said the vandalism had been done sometime after dark Friday night, and before sun-up Saturday.

Epstein said the damaged green lies along he southerly side of the Green Hills course, near homes facing Helen Drive. Any number of people could have gained access to the greens, he indicated.

Claim Filed In Jet Mishap

Pan American World Airways has filed a claim against the City of San Francisco, and San Francisco International Airport, for $6,000,000 in property damages to their Boeing 747 which was damaged on take-off and made a crash landing at the Airport June 30.

Spokesmen for Pan American would only say:

"Our insurance carriers have paid to Pan American approximately $6,000,000 in hull insurance to cover the aircraft damaged. The notice filed with the city is a subrogation of that claim, against the city."

City Attorney Thomas O'Connor said "no suit has been filed. We have a claim, only."

Assistant City Attorney William Bourne said "this is about as minimal as a claim can be."

The claim was made on a standard form required by the city, he said, and filed November 1, so as to be on record within the 100 day limit within which claims can be lodged against a public entity.

In the space titled "how did the accident occur," said Bourne, "Pan Am has inserted two words: under investigation."

In the next item, "itemization," he said, "the airline inserted three words: itemization not complete."

Attorney Bourne said "I presume they filed this to preserve their rights."

He said he assumed that the airline would follow up with a more complete claim at a later date, and perhaps with a law suit, as well.

Neither attorney would make any comment about what the city would do, although it would be normal practice for them to refer the matter to the Board of Supervisors, for the Board to order the claim rejected and referred to their own insurance carriers.

Pedestrian Hit by Car Dies in D.C.

A San Francisco man was killed Saturday night when he was struck by a car as he dashed across Junipero Serra Boulevard just south of Eastmore Avenue in Daly City.

Highway patrolmen said that Johnny Lee Hart, 47, was struck by a southbound car driven by Susan Mary Gladysz, 22, of 3713 Callan Boulevard, South San Francisco, about 7:15 p.m. after his car had run off the nearby Eastmore-Mission Street offramp.

The driver told policemen that she did not see the pedestrian, but stopped after feeling a bump. Officers said that Hart was carried a distance of 132 feet by the vehicle.

The Sierra Club's open invitation is to show interested persons first hand the 90 acre natural area which is prominent in the current 380 freeway controversy.

S. Bruno Youth Injured; He Ran Into Side of Truck

A San Bruno youth was badly injured Thursday afternoon when he ran around a bus and into the side of a postal truck, in front of Peninsula hospital on El Camino Real in Burlingame.

Steven M. Bernhardt, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Bernhardt, 131 Allen Drive, San Bruno, was reported to be in "critical" condition at Peninsula hospital Friday.

Aides said he suffered a head injury, lacerations to his face, an injury of the jaw, and a fractured left arm, in the accident.

Witnesses agreed that young Bernhardt had run into the side of a postal truck being driven northbound on El Camino Real.

The truck was driven by William A. Perez, 3233 Casa de Campo, San Mateo, a post office employe.

Perez told police that Bernhardt "ran from in front of a bus," and hit the side of his postal truck, toward the rear.

Two men were injured in Burlingame early Friday when their cars crashed after they apparently drifted off to sleep while driving on El Camino Real.

Billy Jack Henderson, 19, son of Willard Henderson, 792 Edgemar Road, Pacifica, was admitted to Peninsula hospital with multiple injuries including head injuries, after his 12:30 a.m. collision with a parked car near Dufferin Avenue.

Henderson is reportedly recovering satisfactorily this morning.

Eugene T. LoCoco, 37, 1516 Sixth Avenue, Belmont, was treated at the hospital and dismissed, after his car slammed into a tree and a power pole near Easton Avenue at 1:40 a.m.

Kiely, 53, who suffered a broken leg and hand, plus cuts and bruises, is now recuperating at home.

Cab Driver Is Robbed

A search is on today for a "goodhearted" Yellow Cab Company patron who turned over $5 to a company driver early Saturday.

Daly City police don't want to congratulate the man, they want to arrest him for attempted armed robbery.

Cabbie David Haverlandt of San Francisco reported he picked up a customer at the corner of Ocean and Mission Streets about 2:45 a.m.

Near Elmwood and Southgate Avenues in Daly City the man simulated a handgun and demanded the cabbie hand over the company's money.

When Haverlandt handed over his wallet containing $7 the gunman quickly handed it back saying, "I don't want your money, I want the company's money."

Haverlandt explained that he had only minutes before dropped off the cab's receipts.

The suspect jumped from the car and fled.

Burglary

South San Francisco Ben Franklin store manager Curtis Peterson arrived at work Saturday morning to find someone had apparently been there earlier and removed $439 from the safe.

Bruno Traffic Control Meeting Held

By JACK BIK

Problems of parking and traffic control throughout San Bruno — but particularly in the Pacific Heights area — highlighted Wednesday night's meeting of the San Bruno Traffic Safety Committee.

Committee members granted a police request for a red zone on the north curb of College Drive where the college entrance road joins Skyline. With just two lanes at that point, parkers have proven a serious traffic obstruction, Chief Russ Cunningham noted. No homes are on that first block.

They also approved a request for an advance street sign in the new Sharp Park Road median, warning westbound drivers of where to turn left for Pacific Heights Boulevard.

A request for a "no left turn" sign at the west entrance to the Pacific Heights Shopping Center, however, was referred to the shopping center owner, since the sign would go on his property. Chief Cunningham pointed out that this entrance, from Highland Drive, is close to an entrance from Sharp Park Road, at a point where there is no break in the Sharp Park Road median. Thus, cars have been winding up driving east on the westbound lanes of Sharp Park Road.

Rather than paint the curb red in front of a home on Jenevein, at the corner of Chestnut, the commissioners decided to contact the owner and simply ask him not to park any campers, boats or other big vehicles obstructing the stop sign erected last month. The matter was held over to the February meeting for final action on the request from City Council.

They recommended for approva , however, a request for a 20-foot red zone on the west side of Huntington, south of Forest Lane near the entrance to Tanforan Park, to provide more room for a sharp turn at that point.

They also recommended a red zone on the north side of Sylvan, right by Eureka Savings, to eliminate one lone parking place which obstructs traffic during train-time.

Several requests were turned down.

Chief Cunningham reported that investigation showed that there was no long-term parking problems on Easton, south of San Bruno Avenue. San Bruno Investment Co. had requested a parking limit by its building.

Commissioner Henry Hein reported that he had investigated the parking around the Church of the Nazarene, situated in a residential neighborhood on Jenevein and Hawthorne, and concluded that in spite of complaints by some neighbors, there did not appear to be any real problem. He talked to both residents and the pastor, he said.

A request for additional lighting on Hermosa, between San Mateo and Montgomery Avenues, made by David M. Johns of 1055 Montgomery, was turned down. Acting City Mgr. Leo Van Dusen reported that present lighting was consistent with that in the rest of the city.

Hero Report Discounted In S. Bruno

By BOB PETERSON

San Bruno officials have replied strongly to a story that appeared in a San Francisco paper about a young Coast Guardsman arrested for possession of five marijuana cigarettes being a hero in a fire that led to the arrest.

Clinton J. Garber, 20, was placed under arrest by Sgt. Bob Timko Monday night at about 10:30 after firemen reported finding what appeared to be five hand-rolled marijuana cigarettes on a top shelf of a cabinet.

A story in a San Francisco paper quotes Stephen Eberhart, 25, of 790 Elm Street, location of the fire, as saying Garber "risked his life" to save Eberhart's 4½-year-old daughter.

Both San Bruno's Police Captain Bill Cann and Fire Marshall Harper Petersen said they were not told of any heroic efforts by anyone the night of the blaze.

"It was not brought to our attention that there was any danger to life," said Captain Cann. "We're always interested in someone who is a credit to the community, whether it be for life-saving efforts or whatever," he said. "It's to our benefit."

Captain Cann said, regarding the arrest, that he would have to go along with Fire Chief Herb Freitas (also quoted in the San Francisco newspaper article). Freitas said he would have been remiss in his duty not to have reported the marijuana discovery to the police.

Captain Cann said, "Whether he is a hero or the President of the United States, if a crime has been committed it is not up to the police department to render judgment. It is up to the courts."

Police Sgt. Hugh Fraser said that there was nothing in the fire department or police department reports that revealed any information regarding Garber as having been a hero.

Harper Petersen said he saw the report in the San Francisco paper as "someone trying to make a hero out of someone who was not." He said that paper's report of the incident was not the same as what he had been told the night of the fire.

According to Petersen, the fire started in a far corner of the garage in the 1½-story structure, which has the bedroom above the garage with the living quarters on ground level.

He said the fire started by what appeared to be an electric short at a panel box. It apparently caught onto a cardboard clothes carrier and started spreading through the garage.

Petersen said he was told that night that Garber (for an unexplained reason) had gone to the garage and opened the garage door. He went back and told Eberhart to get the family out when he saw the fire.

D.C. Driver Is Injured

A Daly City man was in good condition Friday at Mary's Help Hospital after suffering a broken jaw and fractured left leg when his small van collided with a pickup truck Thursday afternoon.

Larry E. Douglas, of 488 Parkview Avenue, received the injuries when his truck collided with a pickup truck driven by David C. Cohan, of 1 Parkside Drive, Daly City. Cohan was apparently not seriously injured in the crash, which occurred at the corner of Fieldcrest and Westdale Avenues about 4 p.m.

Yule Craft Contest Set

The Third Annual Christmas Craft Contest and Display is being sponsored by the Millbrae Park and Recreation Department at the Millbrae Community Center. The contest is for children in the first through eighth grades. To enter, children should make their own creative Christmas craft and bring it to the Recreation Center, 477 Lincoln Circle, on Wednesday, December 15, from 3-5 p.m. The crafts will be on display at the Center from December 15-25.

S.S.F. Store Hit Again

For the second time in a week the Drug King, 1059 El Camino Real, South San Francisco, has been robbed by three men. They escaped with $975.

Police said they are investigating this latest robbery, occurring at 6 p.m. Sunday, as though the two incidents have some connection. They say however, descriptions of the suspects are vague.

According to police three men entered the store. One stood near the doorway holding what appeared to be a rifle or shotgun under a trench coat. A second man may or may not have been armed, police said.

The third suspect, carrying a silver-covered revolver, forced Assistant Store Manager Riley Scoville, 51, into the office and ordered him to open the safe.

Chest Tests In San Bruno

Public chest X-rays and breathing tests will be offered Wednesday and Thursday, December 15 and 16, in San Bruno by the Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association of San Mateo County.

The association's mobile unit will be operating at the curb in front of 420 San Mateo Avenue from noon to 2 p.m. and 3 to 6 p.m. both days. No advance appointment is needed.

Chest X-rays give early warning of TB, lung cancer and enlarged heart. Breathing tests can detect respiratory impairments caused by such diseases as emphysema.

Anyone 18 years of age or older is eligible. A $1 service fee is charged for the X-ray; a $2 fee for the breathing test.

Prices are discounted and single item priced except on fair-traded and government controlled items.

The Jeff Scene

By SUE MCALLISTER

"Homecoming '71" was Jeff's most successful homecoming ever. Planned by a persistent, hard-working Pow-Wow commissioner Linda Adreven, the day began with a rally. Each class competed for spirit points, and Linda's rally included activities not usually associated with a spirit rally. She included a novelty routine by the Pep Girls, a song written and performed by Jean Muylaert, the San Francisco State Pompon Girls, and Hokey Pokey.

The "Teacher of the Week" award went to Miss Barbara Schmidt.

After the rally, everyone went to home rooms for report cards and to vote for the Homecoming Queen and Her Court, announced at the dance that night.

The homecoming parade was at 2 p.m. and many members of the student body were active in it: International Club, a car; Filipino Club, a king and queen; Bike Club; Horseback Riding Club, a float and a car; Pow-Wow Club, carrying the Jefferson Banner and homecoming signs; Latin-American Club, two cars; an addition to each class court nominees; the Colma Band and Honor Guard; a pep staff car, and the Jefferson High School Marching Band.

The parade ended at the gate of the game and most of the crowd entered to see the last game of the 1971-72 football season.

At half-time both Colma and Jeff entertained the crowd.

After the game, the homecoming dance was held. The announcement of the 1971 Homecoming Queen and her court was announced. The crowd was nervous as each class princess was announced:

Freshman, JoAnn Celestino; sophomore, Debbie McGovern; junior, Grace Celestino; and senior, Gloria Saquar. Janice Jardin was the Homecoming Queen.

When you got to go...

are you sure your car will? Whether it's for business, routine chores or a social function it's very embarrassing to have to phone with excuses because the car won't run.

If Old Faithful is becoming more old than faithful we can offer several ways to cure that particular headache.

You may have been thinking of trading for a new car. We have a lot going for us. New Dodges, from Colts to Monacos. The smallest profit-per-car in our Association, which means you pay less. More thorough preparation to save your time. And one of the finest reputations in the automotive business. You can be sure we won't put that in jeopardy.

Or if you're driving a Chrysler Corporation product now, visit Elmer Estrada. He's our Service Center Manager. And for just a few dollars he'll inspect your car, tell what must be done for safety and what should be done for reliability and economy.

Your third option is a late model used car. While these aren't new we inspect and fix them up with the same meticulous care we devote to our new cars.

One last word: there are going to be one hundred lucky people. They'll buy the cars we stocked before the price increases went into effect. We like to help you save your money so if you've been considering a new car come in today and have a cup of coffee. We'll show you what TRUE VALUE can mean to you.

Sincerely,
Joe Francis

WOULD YOU BELIEVE "Breakfast with Santa" for the Children? It's happening every Saturday morning before Christmas at Mel's Restaurant in Serramonte Shopping Center, Daly City. Tickets are available at Mel's and the sponsoring Lions Club of Daly City. Santa arrives every Saturday at 8:30 a.m. on his Honda 350 (onto the Mall) and entertains the kiddies with some Christmas carolling (he's an opera singer) and a chat with each one of the boys and girls over breakfast. Cost is 79 cents.

A Tutorial Center At Westmoor

Students who have been failing their classes have a place to go besides a study hall, now that a Tutorial Center has opened at Westmoor High School.

If a teacher feels a student can be saved from failing, he will refer him to the Tutorial Center, where the student will be given more individual attention according to his or her problem.

When a student gets to the center, he works on prearranged assignments from his own class text. The only difference from his regular class is that the center will give him more attention to his problems than could his regular teacher.

Headed by Carlin Simmons, the center was opened November 15 and will be open both fourth and fifth periods for all students. In addition, there are Miss Maggie Mahoney, a student teacher, and Paul Perez, Westmoor's assistant principal.

The idea for the center came about through the efforts of principal Clayton Kollmann, administration head Walter Gloistein and Pablo Perez. It was initiated for the sole purpose of helping students academically and attitudinally in their classes.

Troubadors on '71 Christmas Rounds

A bit of Yuletide cheer will be brought into the lives of some San Francisco underprivileged and have-nots when The Troubadors of the St. Francis Heights Dance and Music Guild embarks upon its annual Winter Sunshine Tour. The free shows includes the Laguna Honda Home for the Aged, Little Sisters of the Poor, Senior Citizens Housing Authority, and two performances at the Canon Kip Community House.

Additionally, The Troubadors will perform live stage shows at the annual Christmas Show sponsored by the Photographers and Photoengravers Union for union members' kiddies. The show takes place at 1:30 p.m., December 12, at A. P. Giannini High School Auditorium, 39th Avenue and Ortega Street, San Franciaco.

The Little Sisters of the Poor engagement is set for 1:30 p.m., December 18. For this affair, The Troubadors will have a cast of 100 singers and dancers and bring along their own Santa Claus (Walter Misterman, 223 Del Prado, Daly City) who will personally hand each of the institution's 285 women and men a gift box donated by Mrs. William J. Scanlon, director, St. Francis Heights Dance and Music Guild, Daly City.

Five days later, the same procedures will be pursued when The Troubadors perform at the Laguna Honda Home for the Aged on December 23. Here Santa will distribute gift boxes to ambulatory patients who've seen the show in the auditorium and then proceed to upstairs wards where he will go bed-to-bed.

Holiday Drive For Needy Gets Underway

The Daly City Recreation Department is conducting the Annual Canned Food Drive for needy families in the Daly City area, Dec. 6-18.

Cans will be collected by youths representing each of the city playgrounds. Badges will be provided for drive participants so they may be readily identified.

Do not donate home canned food, packages which have been opened or any items requiring refrigeration.

Youths wishing to assist with the drive should contact local playground leaders for further information and badges.

Adult groups wishing to donate canned items may drop them off at the closest playground on the Daly City Recreation Department Office, 134 Hillside Boulevard.

Students to Voter Meet

Students from Jefferson High School, Daly City, attended a conference for new voters at Stanford University.

The theme of the conference was "New Voters for Peace" and the speakers included state Assemblyman John Baskin Sellars, Viet Veterans for peace John Cary, Assemblyman Willie Brown, U.C. Berkeley student body president, Stanford student body president, U.S. Congressman Loewenstein and San Mateo Congressman Paul N. "Pete" McCloskey.

Each of the speakers urged the audience, mostly students, to move for changes within the system rather than through violence and revolution.

They urged the students to register and to get involved in the system, supporting the candidates of their choice and to run for public office themselves, since approximately 25 million new voters will be eligible for the 1972 presidential election.

UNICEF Cards Are Sold in Pacifica

Five priceless paintings from the Vatican Art Collection have been reproduced as UNICEF Greeting Cards this year by permission of the Holy See on the occasion of the 25th anniversary year celebration of UNICEF, it was announced today by Mrs. Phyllis Osborn of Pacifica, chairman of the local card and Calendar sale.

Reproduced in full color with gold in a Special Edition Series, these medieval masterpieces, like all UNICEF card designs, are being sold for the benefit of the United Nations Children's Fund which works with the governments of 112 countries to provide health, education and nutrition assistance to the sick, unschooled and malnourished children of the world.

Also available is UNICEF's 1972 Art Engagement Calendar, artists from 27 nations have contributed the 55 designs for the calendar's theme, "The Joyful Child".

"There are two beautiful reasons for buying a UNICEF calendar," says Mrs. Osborn.

"First, the book is useful for keeping track of the year's engagements, and a constant delight as an art book.

"And second, the reminder, with each passing week, that you have done something specific to help children."

The Calendar, the Vatican Series, other UNICEF greeting cards and notes, games, puzzles and gifts are all available at the Periwinkle Art Gallery, 303 San Pedro Ave., in Pacifica.

Mrs. Vito Giotto and Thomas O'Toole are the chairmen of the party and they have urged all parents to attend this event and share in the fun and conversation with the faculty and other parents.

NELL NORTON
Sugar 'n Spice

Good morning, good cooks.

Phase II of our Christmas baking will be cookies. What better way to get into the spirit of Christmas than by mixing and fixing fancy cookies for family and friends.

This first recipe for gingerbread cookies is a Christmas must at my home. Using a fancy Christmas tree cookie cutter and decorated with green glaze they really are perfect for the season.

GINGERBREAD TREES

2 cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon soda
1½ teaspoons cinnamon
½ teaspoon ginger, cloves and nutmeg
½ cup shortening
½ cup molasses, dark
½ cup sugar
1 egg yolk

Sift together the two cups flour, half teaspoon salt, one teaspoon baking powder, half teaspoon soda, one and one-half teaspoons cinnamon, one-half teaspoon each ginger, cloves and nutmeg. Cream the half cup shortening with the half cup sugar, add half cup molasses and cream again. Add egg yolk and mix again. Add the sifted ingredients gradually to the creamed mixture and mix well. Chill for 2 hours.

Roll out on lightly floured surface to ¼-inch thickness. Cut into shapes and bake on ungreased cookie sheet in 350-degree oven. Cool on rack and decorate.

DECORATOR'S GLAZE

1 cup sifted confectioner's sugar
3½ teaspoons water
Food coloring
¼ teaspoon vanilla

Blend the one cup sugar with the three and one-half teaspoons water and one-fourth teaspoon vanilla. Mix well. Add a few drops food coloring.

Bar cookies are the easiest to make requiring no rolling or individual shaping. These cookies are both delicious and attractive with a sprinkling of powdered sugar over the top.

NUT BARS

3 eggs lightly beaten
1 pkg. brown sugar
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 package chocolate bits
1 cup chopped walnuts
1 cup coconut

Combine the three eggs and one pound brown sugar. Beat well. Sift the two cup flour with the one teaspoon baking powder and add to creamed mixture. Fold in the one teaspoon vanilla, one package chocolate chips, one cup each coconut and nuts. (If you prefer you may use two cups nuts instead of one cup each nuts and coconut.)

Spread in 9x13-inch pan. Bake in 325-degree oven 15 to 20 minutes. (20 minutes was right in my oven). Test center with toothpick. It should be moist but not runny. (Not dry either or bars will be hard.)

Sift powdered sugar over top and cut into squares. Makes about 36 cookies.

I wouldn't want you to do your Christmas baking without reminding you of these unusual, melt-in-your-mouth cookies.

POTATO CHIP COOKIES

1 pound margarine
1¼ cups sugar
2 teaspoons vanilla
3½ cups flour
1½ cups crushed potato chips

Blend the pound margarine, one and one-fourth cups sugar and two teaspoons vanilla. Cream very well. Next blend in the three and one-half cups flour and lastly work in the one and one-half cups crushed potato chips. The dough will be thick.

Drop by rounded teaspoonfuls onto ungreased cookie sheet. Bake in 350-degree oven, 12 to 15 minutes. Remove from cookie sheet and sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Makes 8 dozen.

PAT MONTERO and Frank Russo rehearse their parts for South San Francisco High School's production of "Halfway Up the Tree." The comedy, directed by Lyle K. Crawford, will be performed December 10-11 at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Feed and Game Trek

IT'S NOT quite true that it took me two weeks to recover from our Thanksgiving feed and game trek to the valley. But it is true,I don't mend as quickly as, say, 10 years ago.

I said the same thing 10 years ago, and, the Good Lord willing, will again some time in every year the next decade.

Someone during the two-hour-long touch football game on Turkey day finally realized what I'd been hiding for years:

THE REASON I'm the "best" ball player — slow, fat and not too smart feller I am—is that as I got older it became necessary to let the younger brothers, cousins and nephews do most of the running and catching.

(In the case of one brother, more running than catching, but when he owns the only football you don't send him home to mommy.)

We breath, yell and direct hard, which is what older brothers are for.

They turned the tables on me this year, because of all of a sudden they noticed they're getting older, too.

So we're all quarterbacks now and our growing boys are being molded to carry on the Bird Day Lame Game.

AND, NO, HURRAY, I didn't get hurt for the first time in years. But Brother Dan is seriously thinking about staying at the table longer!

BUT SOME FOLKS have it even tougher . . . for instance, Mrs. Jane Powell, the Jeff High board member, in Daly City, in a single week: Became a grandmother, buried her mother, celebrated her wedding anniversary (along with Dick), observed her birthday and had major surgery. And seven days later made the scheduled JUHSD board meeting.

"THEY" (I forget who, exactly) widened 87th Street (Daly City-Colma region) and it's not without a couple of slight shifts (minor) . . . but Gina Biagini of Broadmoor tract insists on calling it the "Little Lembard" because of some crooked striping.

SPEAKING OF BROADMOOR, some of the residents are expressing anger because someone is going around saying (we hear) that a Daly City policeman said at a Daly City Town Hall meeting that the only ghetto "in" Daly City is Broadmoor, which is an unincorporated tract.

Books Make Ideal Gift for Peninsula Gardener

By IVA NEWMAN

When it comes to choosing a gift for a gardener there are two things that you can never miss on. One is a book or books on the particular plant or type of gardening the recipient finds most interesting and the other is a merchandise order on a large nursery with a fine reputation.

Many gardeners covet books on their pet plant species but hesitate to spend money that may be needed elsewhere or may look like they are indulging their hobby too much. If you have such a relative or friend why not engage him (or her) in a conversation on books pertaining to the hobby or casually mention one of the fine gardening books below?

Just out and creating considerable excitement among fuchsia fans is "Wagtails Book of Fuchsias" by Eileen Saunders, $10. This is not a how-to-grow-it book on fuchsia culture. The best cultural information available on fuchsias is the American Fuchsia Society Bulletin published monthly as part of the $3 annual membership dues. This book has 96 pages, each 8 by 12 inches, filled with drawings of individual fuchsias, 66 in color and 118 in pen and ink. Each drawing is of a named fuchsia with a detailed picture of the flower in full bloom, a bud about to open and a leaf in full detail for the colored plates. In addition the pen and ink drawings have detailed outlines of the shape of the tube, the sepal and the corolla. Each black and white diagram has a tabulated description of tube, sepals, corolla, filaments, style, foliage and growth plus a brief outline of the particular characteristics of the fuchsia pictured. This book is available for $10 from Eileen Saunders, Wagtails, West End, Henfield, Sussex, England. It will be sent by return air mail, postpaid. As a gift to another, enclose the name and address of the recipient and a hand-painted greeting card will be enclosed suitable for the occasion you name.

A wonderful help for the beginning orchid grower is "Whys and Wherefores of Orchid Culture," a group of selections from the Orchid Digest, $3.95. This book covers all the types of orchids with simple, down-to-earth instructions on how to grow each type. It even has a chapter on Greenhouse heating for amateurs, a chapter on feeding orchids by A. O. Matkin which tells what to use, how to use it and the effect achieved. There is also a chapter on making corsages and one on arrangements using orchids. This book may not be in the local book stores but you will find it in orchid nurseries such as McClellan's. All of the articles are by orchid specialists and we have found them most dependable.

For someone interested only in cymbidiums, these orchids do so very well both outdoors and under glass here on the Peninsula, we would like to suggest a membership in the Cymbidium Society of America (annual dues $8), 6787 South Worsham Drive, Whittier, Calif., 90602. They put out a very informative bulletin called "Cymbidium Society News.

Bonsai is going ahead by leaps and bounds. As gardens get smaller and people are forced to move into apartments they seem to be turning to these miniature trees and gardens to retain their contact with the soil. "The Masters' Book of Bonsai," about $6, is a book for beginners and advanced students alike. It is written by a group of Bonsai masters (Directors of the Japan Bonsai Association). It starts out with an explanation of bonsai, a very short history of bonsai and a definition of the art of bonsai. This is followed by short (less than a page) articles on soil and the root trimming and pruning, sunshine, watering and ventilation. This is followed with 25 pages of bonsai masterpieces to stimulate the imagination. These are in color and very beautiful. Then the authors turn their attention to the details of growing and training the fascinating little trees. Everything is covered from the tools needed, the direction the training wires should be wound, soil mixture, placing in the pots, etc. The book ends with a list of plants and their description that make good bonsai.

A companion book is "Bonkei: Tray Landscapes," by Jozan Hirota, about $7. This is for the enthusiast who likes to place his bonsai in a garden setting. This book and the one above may be found in Bonsai Nurseries or at Kodansha International-USA, Ltd., Palo Alto. These are the best available books on these subjects that we have found.

PROPAGATION

One of the most intriguing books that has come our way for some time is "Propagating House Pants" with a new section on "How to Grow Herbs and Vegetables Indoors," by Arno and Irene Nehrling. This couple is one of America's most knowledgable and dependable garden book authors. This book is published by Hearthside Press, Inc, Great Neck, N.Y. This book was published in July of this year and includes all the latest methods of successfully propagating house plants along with the newest scientific aids. It lists the various times of the year for propagating and also gives a good list of rooting media for rooting the various cuttings. It also lists the equipment needed and stresses ways of finding room for this cultural art even in apartments. This new book explains the use of pelleted seed, mist propagation, lights, the use of runners, offsets, stolens, suckers, spores, divisions as well as cuttings and air-layering. "Propagating House Plants" can add a new dimension to ordinary gardening and make it fun for the whole family.

For the ecology minded we would like to suggest "Companion Plants and How to Use Them" by Helen Philbrick and Richard B. Gregg ($4.75), published by the Devin-Adair Company, New York. This book is full of such interesting tidbits as "Nasturtiums planted near broccoli keep the latter free of aphis."

ACLU and Christmas

IN TRYING TO EXPLAIN Christmas to the American Civil Liberties Union, a newspaper editorial noted it was more than a religious holiday, it was a time of good cheer, merrymaking and present-giving.

Maybe it is to whomever wrote that editorial, but let's get the facts straight right now. Christmas is December 25. On that date Jesus Christ was born in a manager. Whatever you want to believe from that time on is strictly your own business. As for me, I believe he was indeed a "superstar" that has lit the way for many millions of people around the world. This is Christ's birthday we are about to celebrate.

PERHAPS FOR SOME it is a time for gift exchanges, boozing and hell-raising. For others, however, it is a time for religious ceremony, reflection and quiet celebration. It is a recognized worldwide time for celebrating, but NOT celebrating the commercial aspects of the day, rather the coming of Christ. Now, whether or not you accept this is your concern. My concern is with those who continue to wring every bit of cheap publicity out of this time of good cheer by blasting those who refuse to "Take Christ Out of Christmas."

For our money these protectors of my civil liberties have been able to shape the Constitution into a fairly handy weapon instead of a shield to protect us.

THEIR LATEST UTTERANCE is to insure that no mention of Christ, either in school plays or carols, be made. The ACLU claims that any mention of Christ is a violation of the Constitution's guarantees on separation of Church and State. All I can say to them is, "God rest ye merry gentlemen."

NEVER IN THE HISTORY of the state have so many done so little for so many. That's kinda paraphrasing Good Old Winnie Churchill's statement on the Battle of Britain ('case ya didn't know). But we're referring to the State Legislature. What did they do for you and me? Nothing Unless you think such great laws as "no swimming in Lake Tahoe between December and March" is good. Or, it is now against the law to stare at the sun from the top of Mt. Shasta for more than two hours, is great. Of course, the latter are outright exaggerations, but what have they done this past year?

THEY'VE KILLED the Governor's environmental bill, tax reform, etc., etc. It seems that if it's a Reagan proposal it has go to be killed. And vice versa. This is nonsense and a complete waste of our money. What about tax reform for the old and sick? Where is the relief needed to cut down school costs and, consequently, the stiff taxes which go with it? This column could go on and on concerning the things that WERE NOT DONE by those elected officials. They seem to be consumed with insuring the creation of an other Republican or Democratic district under the redistricting order. They do not seem to give one hoot about the people who elect them to office. I've put a few of the locals on my list — and I don't mean the one I give to Santa.

OPERATION CHILD CARE may soon get underway in Daly City, thinks to the efforts of many, including Julius Castellan. The child care center (location pending) will take care of kids from two years, nine months up to 11 years old while mom goes shopping or to work — all free. Castellan says the center will care for about 100 children. A group from Santa Clara has been asked for a donation of $1,000.

SICK CALL — Got some good news, got some bad. First the good news: Glenn South home after heart surgery. Looking fit as a fiddle and telling friends he feels great — except for a few tender spots . . . Now for the bad news: At last check, D.C. Mayor Bud Lycett still in Peninsula (visitors and cards okeh) with a kidney ailment.

DALY CITY COUNCILMEN Frank Pacelli, who we predicted may not seek reelection come April, has turned over his chairmanship of the North County Sanitation District to Mayor Lycett. Rumor is also out that Pacelli will step down as a director of the League of California Cities.

NUMBER SIXTH COMING UP — The First National Bank of D.C. has its approval for a Millbrae branch to be built at 1551 El Camino Real — site of the old Fling's Burger stand.

NO FLOODING during that downpour last week in Garden Valley and the Westlake Estates. But officials are still concerned about the Valley section, at least until the County picks up their end of the storm drain improvements.

GARAGE SALES ARE becoming big business. Sound nuts? Well, folks, you better believe what I'm saying. The "garage sale" syndrome is sweeping the nation. The guy who cleans the garage and sells that old junk is one thing. However the fellow who seems to have a garage sale every weekend is violating th Good Neighbor Habit. Let's face it; if you live next door to someone who insists on having one of these sales every week and shoppers block the drive with cars, he's going too far! What's the answer, Mr. City Attotney? Hello, hello?

A SURVEY MADE IN D.C. reveals that the Jeff Elementary School District has 9468 students enrolled of which 10 per cent (981) are black; 15 per cent (1441) have Spanish surnames, and six per cent (549) are in the "others" category. In the High School district (7688 students enrolled) 6.15 per cent are black (470); 13.6 per cent have Spanish surnames (1034), and 204 are in the "other" category.

THE MARQUEE

By Barbara Bladen

An Imposing Performance

Last week I flew to Los Angeles to hear baritone Richard Fredricks and soprano Beverly Sills sing a spectacular performance of "Roberto Devereux," the Donizetti opera, never heard outside of New York until now.

The Music Pavilion was sold out, partly because of the excellent reputation of the New York City Opera Company which is doing seven operas in three weeks and is the only company that does 'Devereux' and because that week Miss Sills, in full Queen Elizabeth regalia was featured on the cover of Time Magazine.

Los Angeles Times music critic Martin Bernheimer said of Fredricks that "he gave an imposing performance" as the Duke of Nottingham.

Yesterday afternoon 1,000 San Mateo county public and private achool students met and heard this fine singer when he did a free concert at San Mateo High School auditorium.

"I'll explain what I'm singing, how it relates to the particular opera production, what they can derive from it, and help the youngsters relate to the acting and singing," he said.

He had a piauist to accompany him and answer questions later. This all came about because of his enthusiasm over appearing on December 14, 16 and 18 at the same location for the San Mateo Winter Music Festival.

The idea was gratefully supported by Henry Use, music director of San Mateo High School; Mrs. Francena T. Hancock, head mistress of the Crystal Springs School For Girls and its administrative head, Frank Cameron who arranged with other school principals to bus the students to the afternoon event.

Fredricks has worked 11 years with Miss Sills.

"We've sung together 100 times. They refer to her as a musical Bette Davis in this role because she acts as well as she sings. The New York City Opera is the only company which does it because it takes four virtuoso singers. She has the tone and range to begin a phrase on low D and take it to high D pianissimo without strain," he said.

"I can do things musically with her I can't approach with anyone else. I watch her mouth and she watches the conductor. She's such a superstar onstage that when she sings well, the audience thinks the man opposite her is singing well also."

If Miss Sills is tagged the musical Bette Davis, it also fits that Fredericks deservedly wears the corresponding tag of Errol Flynn of opera. He is a fine actor who excels in dramatic roles.

The native California is an American trained operatic personage. From summer stock in Sacramento and night club appearances in Los Angeles, he moved to opera without ever 'traveling Europe to make a name.'

His friendship with conductor Johnny Green goes way back and their collaboration on the forthcoming music festival is only an extension of their working rapport when they toured with the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra recently.

Thievery Increases This Time of Year

By RUSSELL CUNNINGHAM
Police Chief, San Bruno

November and December are noted as being the months during which more burglaries and robberies are committed than at any other time of the year.

Christmas shopping and the amount of valuable items left in homes and vehicles during this time of the year are the major causes of these thefts.

Shopping center parking lots, open carports and unlocked garages are usually the areas of greatest victimization. When shopping, and using your car as a place to store goods obtained, place the goods in the trunk of the car.

Do not leave packages, wrapped or unwrapped, in plain view in your vehicle. This is an open invitation to t a thief and he will take advantage of it. To further frustrate the criminal, be sure to lock your car.

Don't leave valuables in your car for even a short period of time, especially in open car ports. Opened or unlocked garages are other problem areas in that a resident goes through a great deal of trouble to lock the house up but neglects to lock the garage, therefore affording the criminal easy access to a location in which he can quietly break into your home.

The greatest deterrent to home burglary is a concerned neighbor. Tell your neighbors when you leave home, even for short durations, and ask that they call the police department if anyone is seen around the home.

Women shoppers are warned to be extra careful guarding their purses, never setting them down on a counter while rummaging for a bargain.

Shoppers, if they don't believe in charge accounts or credit cards, are advised to carry only the amount of money that they'll need for the day's shopping.

It takes only a second for a thief to place a package on top of your purse and then pick up both items and walk off.

A Tour of Toydom

On the contemporary scene: This Christmas don't miss a visit to a toy store. Ah what fantasy of super playthings. What a dreamland of high-rise wonder with matchbox fleets and "grippidee-gravidee" dolls with more dexterity than real girls.

There is a "mean mountain" with plastic cars hurtling down rugged canyons. There is a super highway that carries plastic rockets over perpendicular roads. There is a fire engine with a snorkel ladder that moves up miniture walls that really burn but never scorch the rug. There are miniture cars equipped with computers to afford a youthful motorist touch command, a whole fleet of airplanes waits in toyland to be moved through space by air pressure. A daredevil in a reacebug waits a young man to push a lever that will send him jumping over barrels and through fire rings.

The game section of toyland has become a "Buck Rogers world, thirty years before the 21st Century. Tic Tac Toe is now a three dimensional game of skill. Parcheesi is automated, Chinese Checkers has become as super elecric wonder with each player shooting his moves across the board.

To add to the fun there are games called "Rock 'em and Sock 'em," "Gnip Gnop," "Strategy," "Ride The Rods," "Doge the Bumps," "Zig Zag Zoom," and even the "Voice of The Mummy." For girls there is a game called "Mystery Date;" for boys "Battle Ball" with shooters that smoke while hurling a ball toward a plastic goal.

There is a doll that can ski off of a davanette without mussing her hair. Another is called "Living Fluff" because she bends her arms, legs, and waist, even her knees while moving around a room on a skate-board. There is a doll that dances by herself and one that wiggles like a baby and even knocks her food from her highchair. A doll named "Rock Flower" winks at boys; another named "Timey Tell" says "It is 6:00 p.m. Time for dinner." There is even an old "Raggedy Ann" who converts into a sleeping bag for youngsters up to four feet tall.

King Arthur's casstle has become a toy with knights and serfs moving over a moat, that contains real water, into a courtyard that has more life than the original Camelot.

Twenty one toy cowboys and Indians are in a game that allows them to swivel with life-like actions in a fight before the eyes of the child who pushes the lever. Hooting trains and churning stage coaches move through a similar game.

The books in the toy store have three dimentional pictures. Indeed in some the components of the illustrations jump out of the story and act out their parts. Balls have changed into wonders that can bounce higher than a house or can float through the air for at least a block then turn and come back to the child who threw it.

Ah yes a toy store is a wonderful place. As one reporter wrote it is a place of "golden wonder." But pity the parents who were going to give their children clothing this Christmas.

Letters to the Editor

Effort Falls Short

Editor, the Post:

The effort to gain enough petition signatures to put the card club issue on the ballot has fallen short.

Taxpayer-voters of Pacifica failed to show enough interest in a business that could help keep taxes from rising. A card club would produce acceptable revenue, as from any other large legitimate business. This they failed to understand.

But they will have another chance to review their recent tax bills and again look forward toward a sizeable business to broaden our tax base.

If enough voters are interested, a renewed campaign for a card club will be mounted next spring.

DICK MEIER

Editor, The Post:

Re: article, "Drug Investigation, etc.-Raids in three cities."

Why didn't the police officers and sheriff's department task force after a month-long investigation ever catch the supplier of drugs to these young people? What good is it to have an officer buy a half ounce of heroin from this rinky-dink source?

These young people are in the wrong, no doubt, but get the bigger guy and then I as a taxpayer and parent won't feel so bad that these officers spent so much time trying to stop drug sales. The time and money for policemen's salaries is not well spent when they get these small dealers. They should know after a month of undercover work who the supplier is.

Newlywed Couple Tours the East

Honeymooning in the East are Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Ward Jones who were married Sunday afternoon at St. Dunstan's Church in Millbrae.

The bride is the former Mary Pamela Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Malachy Clarke of Millbrae. Her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Jones who came from their home in Lewiston, N.Y. for the wedding.

The Rev. Angelo Re officiated at the 2 o'clock ceremony which was followed by a reception at the Villa Hotel. The bride and her father rode to the church in a 1932 Model A Ford driven by Carl A. Ball. The bride and her husband rode to the reception in the same vehicle.

The bride chose a wedding gown of light ivory delustred satin with an Empire bodice and an A-line floor length skirt. Pearls trimmed the bodice of reembroidered Alencon lace and the same Alencon lace was used in a deep border on the hemline. A chapel train, fitted bishop sleeves, and a high crown collar completed the dress silhouette. A matching pearl-trimmed ivory Alencon lace tiara caught the bride's fingertip veil. She carried a cascade of ivory roses and baby's breath.

THE POST'S Family Forum

Suzanne Gioana of Burlingame and Mrs. Lawrence Meddock of San Diego were the honor attendants and Barbara Rhoads of Burlingame was the bridesmaid. All wore floor length gowns with ivory lace high-collared bodices and burgundy velvet skirts. The collars were edged in lace ruffles and adorned with velvet chokers with cameo pins. Ruffles also edged the tight cuffs of the bishop sleeves.

The attendants completed their costumes with burgundy velvet pillboxes and carried colonial bouquets of light pink roses and baby's breath.

Mrs. Clarke took her place in the family pew in a burgundy velvet A-line dress with a high jeweled neckline, and long sleeves of pleated chiffon caught with jeweled cuffs. Mrs. Jones wore a gray and gold brocade A-line dress with gray accessories. Both mothers carried white orchids.

Arthur Jones was his son's best man and guests were seated by Gregg Clarke, brother of the bride, Lawrence Meddock, and Ray Forrest.

Among the wedding guests were Mrs. John W. Pratt of Batavia, N.Y., aunt of the bridegroom and Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Macina of North Haven, Conn. sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The new matron attended Mills High School, the College of San Mateo, and the Cabrillo College School of Dental Hygiene. Her husband attended Westfield High School, Gettysburg College in Pennsylvania, and the University of Pennsylvania School of Dentistry. He has a brother, Robert A. Jones of New York.

Club Asks Moms To Bring Toys

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Mother's Club will meet tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the shcool hall.

Hostesses for the evening's festivities will be the fourth grade mothers.

Instead of exchanging gifts this year, every mother has been asked to take a toy to be given away to needy children during the holidays.

Mrs. Jean Arnold, chairman of the bus trip to Reno, has reported that 39 persons participated and that it was a successful event despite a snowstorm.

Sister Carol, the OLPH principal, has reminded mothers to attend the monthly meeting and be eligible for a month's free tuition.

Ann Pacheco and Lita Tinetti were the lucky mothers in October and November.

Honor for Farmer

Dan Farmer, San Francisco State College coach and physical education teacher for 40 years, will be honored this Friday night with a testimonial dinner at the college's dining hall as teachers, former students and friends hope to send him off to a jovial retirement at the conclusion of the current semester.

Farmer teams, during his quarter century stint as Gator head basketball coach (1932-57), compiled the best win-loss percentage (.646 — 352 wins, 196 losses) of any era in State's history. Only three times did Farmer squads suffer losing seasons, and they broke even just once. In 1954, the Gators won the Far Western Conference championship.

Farmer also coached tennis for 35 years (1935-70) and was a leader in the development of non-scholarship athletic programs.

A graduate of Chico State College (1930), Farmer received his masters degree from UC Berkeley. "Big Dan," as teammates called him, won all-city honors in four sports at McClymonds High in Oakland, and landed 12 block letters at Chico in football, basketball and track. He was a four-time all-conference basketball guard at Chico.

Farmer's brand of basketball was characterized by constant running and solid defense. Several years ago, when asked to rate the best players he ever coached, he named Kevin Duggan ('50-'51), Tom Collingwood ('39-'40), Johnny Burton ('46-'47) and Bob Liebe ('53-'54). In 1952 Duggan was named second-string All-America center by the Helms Athletic Foundation, and still holds most Gator scoring records.

Despite Farmer's great record as a basketball coach, we personally remember him best for a bit of baseball news he once relayed to us.

It was early afternoon on Monday, October 8, 1956, and the Yankees, that morning, had played the Dodgers to break a World Series tie of two wins apiece. Your intrepid columnist had cut classes at San Francisco State the Thursday and Friday before to see the Series game, had a test due that Monday morning at just about game time, and figured what the hell, the Yanks would murder them bums anyway.

So there we were, out of class and headed for a booth in the Redwood Room at the student cafeteria, and wondering how the game had come out (this was in the days before transistors and earphones), when who should we spot but Dan Farmer, who we were sure had somehow managed to sneak a peek or three at the game that morning.

"Hey Coach," we yelled, "how'd the game come out?"

Farmer paused briefly, took a suck on his pipe, and then in that calm, down-home, earthy way of his drawled, "Oh, yeh, well the Yankees won, 2-0 . . . and another thing, Don Larsen threw a perfect game."

"Yeh, sure Coach," we said in our best smart-alecky way. "Sure, Larsen threw a perfect World Series game and I'm gonna get 18 units of A's this semester."

As a matter of fact, Larsen had thrown a perfect World Series game, and we didn't get all A's. Thus, the one World Series game we had missed since they had begun televising them was a perfect game. That's the way it is with us winners. Thanks for the information, anyway, Coach, and we hope YOU don't miss a World Series game for the next 50 years or so.

SPEAKING of S.F. State, we're afraid we shorted the Gators' fine tackle, Grant Cvitanich, ex of Westmoor, recently when we merely noted that he had done another fine job this past season. As he has for the past four years, he literally held the Gator defensive line together with leadership, inspiration and deeds. If you're interested in numbers, he led the defense with 51 tackles and 18 assists.

Word on the Gator basketball squad is that if they were the class of the Far Western Conference last year (they won the title), they'll be an absolute powerhouse this time around.

Another old Gator hero, former FWC All-League halfback Johnny Sochor, is now among the educators of the world. Sochor is now substitute teaching around the Bay Area, was last spotted filling in at Terra Nova for another old jock, head basketball coach Bud Bresnahan.

OH, THE IRONY of it all. A recent report had Gil Hodges turning down Orlando Cepeda for Ray Sadecki, even though Hodges is desperate for power and Sadecki is strictly a second line hurler on his club. We remember when the Cardinals jumped at that deal, and we thought is was the worst one the Giants had ever made.

While we're on Giant trades, that Perry for McDowell deal is fairly typical of the one which we often describe as trading personality for personality rather than talent for talent. Sure, McDowell is younger than Perry and the Giants needed a southpaw starter, but we don't think the deal would have been consumated if manager Charley Fox and Gaylord had seen eye-to-eye, which, reliable sources tell us, wasn't the case. McDowell's discontent with Cleveland, was, of course, sprung into the open last summer when he jumped the club and refused to return until he was given a guarantee that he would be traded at the end of the season. Which must have hurt Cleveland's chances of a better deal, because the other clubs knew the Indians HAD to get rid of Sam, and might eventually accept less than they'd like.

Perry incidentally, because he is becoming more and more a control pitcher, might have trouble getting used to the different strike zone in the other league. It might not affect McDowell over here, because he's strictly a power pitcher, and may be able to overpower his mistakes.

GOOD THINGS keep happening to our alma mater, Mission High. First, the Diamond Jubilee celebration which we wrote of a few weeks ago and which was, literally, a roaring success (While sitting in the Mission auditorium observing the spectacle that night, it suddenly occurred to us that Mission may be the only school in the world where a priest and a pickpocket could sit side by side and while under the protection of an alumni gathering, neither inflict his profession on the other), than a championship game, albeit a losing one, with Balboa on Thanksgiving Day, and then having more players named to the All-City team than Bal itself.

The Bears had four spots against Bal's three on the first offensive team, and they were three-three on the defensive team. On the second string squad, it was two-two on offense, one-one on defense.

THE MANNER in which Jim Plunkett's national collegiate record for career yards fell this year makes me more and more distrust college football statistics.

We quote in part, from an Associated Press story:

"Florida's John Reeves passed 348 yards to smash (Plunkett's record) last night as the Gators walloped Miami, 45-16.

Reeves was 13 yards shy of Plunkett's . . . record with 70 seconds to play when his defensive teammates literally laid

NPL Basketball Shouldn't Hurt For Contenders

By JERRY LITTRELL

This may be an excellent year for the newly-installed post-season playoff system as the North Peninsula League promises to provide five and possibly six basketball teams which all can make serious bids for the conference championship.

The Shaugnessy playoffs, where the top four teams in the final standings engage in an elimination tournament, is the new feature in the NPL this season and this factor, along with the five well-balanced squads, could make it a highly interesting season.

There really is no way to pick one or even two teams for the title spot. South San Francisco, Jefferson, Westmoor and Oceana all have the capabilities of winning the title while El Camino, Terra Nova and Half Moon Bay lack only the one major ingredient, height, to make them contenders.

Jefferson's offense will revolve around senior center Ken Smith, at 6-6 the biggest and strongest inside scoring threat in the conference. Smith, the baby brother of NPL record-holder Pinky Smith, is all set to come into his own this year with his aggressive inside action and his superior offensive rebounding abilities.

The key to Jeff's chances will be taking a little pressure off Smith up front. Coach Mic Kelly hopes that forward Neville Wall, another senior, may do that along with outside shooting guards Rey Viada and Joe Randolph.

South City has a host of forwards all of the usual size and abilities — quick and quicker. The run-happy Warriors could have their strongest team in a decade but a lot depends on how fast coach Gene Mullins can shift his lines — a la ice hockey — in and out.

Veterans Bill Bryant (6-2) Marty Gale (6-1), Brad Loefler (6-2) and newcomers Rhod Wallace (6-2) and Kank Love (6-2) manage up front flanking 6-4 center Lynn Simmons. Mason Larkin, a junior guard, could be one of the quickest ballhandlers around as well as an outside scoring threat.

Oceana only has four starters and two top juniors back this year plus that all important home-court advantage to work with. The Sharks were 7-1 at home last year in the confined Oceana gymnasium that gives fits to visiting teams.

Tom Harper, Rich Johnston (a three-year letterman), Ric Whitmore and Rich Wereda all were starters as juniors and add to that Dennis Roarke and Art Thomas, both 6-4 juniors, and coach Don Novitsky has the makings for a banner year.

Westmoor lost a lot in guards Brad Quanstrom and Dave Riley and the key will be replacing those two backcourt men this season. Coach Tony Giamonne has starter Gavin Long, still only a junior, back along with sharp-shooting forward Gary Stoller.

Center will be manned by 6-5 junior Leo Biederman or senior Jim Woods while Ted Gray, Steve Murray and-or Rory Poblitz all battle for ballhandling positions.

El Camino needs a big man in the post to be a serious threat but the Colts are stable at the other positions. Veteran Bob Marty will run at one forward while Rich Wright, Kevin Hornick, Mark Spivey and Rudy Castellanos will juggle around for the two other front line positions. Guards Mike Freeland and Bob Garcia may get the starting call diminutive Rene Herreries.

Half Moon Bay also lacks a tall man with coach Chuck Short's biggest man, 6-2 Jeff Yerian, being declared out for the year with a football injury. Pete Peterson, a junior, and senior Frankie Reyes will anchor the Cougar offense that could be potent if it could get a rebound or two.

Terra Nova has three lettermen back in John Racanelli, George Yaron and Ron MacArthur, probably the best shooter on the team. But the Tigers, under first-year coach Bud Bresnahan, also need someone to clear the boards as their biggest man is also only 6-2.

Serramonte has strength in the backcourt with veterans Don Theuner, Ray Kirchenbaum and Todd Stevenson but just how well coach Ric Warne can fill the spots up front remains to be seen.

A Newer-Than-Usual Outlook Is Anticipated for the MPL

There is a newer-than-usual look to Mid-Peninsula League basketball this season.

In the Shaughnessy playoff system the MPL will use, the top four teams in the standings at the end of the regular season will all have a crack at the championship, thereby reviving interest that often flagged in midseason ere now.

And nobody's picking a winner, except for Burlingame coach Frank Bettendorf. He'll take Cap. Cap and Hillsdale both did well in the summer league. But anything a basketball coach says before the season must be taken with huge grains of salt; in no other sport are the head men so anxious to downplay their own teams.

Here's the run-down for the MPL schools located in the North County:

BURLINGAME

Bettendorf has lost prime movers Steve Kircher and Ray Rotolo to Canada College; the only returning starter is 6-2½ guard Doc Scheppler, who figures to be one of the leading scorers.

Phil Williamson (6-3) was a squadman last year though, as was Rick Cassidy, and both could help out quite a bit. Mike Strohmaier, a competitive, long-legged receiver from the Panthers' championship football team, will be around, as will the quarterback from that team, Clark Anderson.

"Our goal," says Bettendorf, "is to make the playoffs. All I can relly say now is that we'll be short again."

CRESTMOOR

On paper coach Pete Pontacq has a lot to look forward to this season. His first five this year were all starters at one time last year, his sixth man is 6-8, he's got a good transfer from Bellarmine, and he only lost one key player to graduation.

George Ama (5-9) and Bruce Patterson (5-11), the guards, are off the football team, as is Jim Jarvis (at 6-3, a center-and-everywhere-else man) and Emmett McCourt, the big sixth man (who figures to be the center before long). The forwards should be Mark Rosekind (6-5) and Bellarmine transfer Bill Shaughnessy (6-2).

Fighting for guard spots should be Larry Foster (6-0) and Chris Svedise. Another comer is Ron Kohles, a 6-2 sophomore who hit over 30 points twice as a freshman.

MILLS

Probable starters : junior Don Weaver (6-5), an All-League frosh-soph player from the championship team; forward Chuck Hextrum (6-6), last year's starting center; junior center Tom MacKenzie (6-6) and Bruce Delfatne (6-5), who was second-team All-MPL frosh-soph. The guards are a question mark. The top man is Tarny Perkins, a 5-11 junior, a good ball-handler.

CAPUCHINO

There's only one returning letterman from last year's team, 6-1 senior Rob Silver. But there are a lot of squadmen from the team back.

The probable starters for now are Silver, John Bomba (6-2), Steve Turner (6-1), Bobby Trask (5-8) and Dave Ware (6-0).

"This team has great potential," says coach Jimmy Johnson, who's been in the business long enough to know. "Silver was just coming into his own late last year. We should be in every game this season and we will probably win some games we shouldn't and lost some we shouldn't. But it's an even race this year. Nobody is really a hardship case."

D.C. Soccer Games Are Action-Packed

Three fast-paced, action-packed soccer games took place Nov. 27.

Boys Under 8:

Blackbirds 8, Golden Eagles 6

A thrilling game with the lead changing continuously. In the end it was the Blackbirds leading the series at two wins each. The pennant winner will be the victors of the Dec. 4 encounter.

Best for the Blackbirds was "mighty mite" Paul Abrahamsohn scoring four goals in an explosive manner. Teammates Ransom Massaglia, Francois Martin, Francisco Romero provided improved support. For the Eagles, little Mike Kennedy, the goalie played spiritedly. David Dennison, Mitch Rosetti, Craig Weisenburger improved over initial performances.

Boys Under 10:

Lions 4, Tigers 1

The Lions continue to dominate with teamplay and man to man passing, with good defensive performances given by goalie Chris Willsey, fullbacks Dave Innocencio and Jim Kennedy. For the Tigers it was goalie Nicki Macchi keeping the score down with tough saves. Carlos Navarro, a newcomer at forward with ball control, quickness and sense of positioning proved that physical size is not too important.

Boys Under 12 and 14

A new series began between Rangers (green shirts) and Astros (yellow shirts) with Astros winning 1 to 0, in a close game with constant action in front of both goals. Ranger goalie Pierre Martin came through with several difficult saves while Bruce Sansom, Liam O'Flaherty, George Bustamente worked strenuously on defense. Louis Navarro, a fleet, dexterous forward was always a threat when in ball possession.

Carl Spirz, a steady all-round performer is marked for team leadership. Referee was Al Rodriguez of the U.S. Olympic team, relative to player Jim Flaherty. Impressed by the eagerness and potential of these youngsters, Al will assist in coaching whenever possible. Continued sign-ups of new players, all age brackets, will be conducted each Saturday at Ben Franklin School between 10 and 11 a.m.

Adult 3-Man Hunch League Highlights and Standings

The Lucky Six continue to roll up the victories in the Adult 3-Man Hunch League conducted by the Daly City Recreation Division. They have now gone six games undefeated and look better each week.

Norman Jang, Frank Ng, Joe Skaar and Al Tabarez have combined to make a formidable opponent for anyone.

Jang, the team's scoring leader, always gives them the early lead that seems to be insurmountable. This week the Lucky Six downed the Sleepers 40-18.

Pedroni AC got back into winning ways by fighting off a determined Cavaliers team. Randy Fitzgerald and Bruce Davidson continue to be the big guns for the Pedroni AC team.

The final score was Pedroni AC 40, S.B. Cavaliers 31.

Six-Foot and Under Standings

| Team | Won | Lost |
|---|---|---|
| Lucky Six | 6 | 0 |
| Sleepers | 3 | 3 |
| Pedroni AC | 3 | 4 |
| Buzzards | 2 | 4 |
| S.B. Cavaliers | 2 | 5 |

Trojans Even-Up; Meet CCSF Today

Skyline Junior College, which has balanced itself up at the .500 mark now, hopes to maintain at least that average this week when the Trojans face two of the toughest junior college basketball teams around this Wednesday and Friday evenings.

Wednesday Walt Rilliet's lads (2-2) travel to the big city to play City College of San Francisco, a rather unknown quality in the local jaycee picture. All that is really known about the always strong Rams is that they are always strong — or at least have been for the past 10 years under aging but foxy coach Sid Phelan, regarded by a majority of his peers as the premiere cage coach around.

Then Friday the Trojans must face Foothill Junion College's Owls, still another rough opponent on the practice trail. A split this week would be a blessing for the scrappy Skyliners.

For six minutes or so last Saturday night the Skyline quintet played excellent basketball and it was enough to power the Trojans to an 82-59 victory over winless College of San Mateo in San Bruno. The Bulldogs (0-4) put on their most impressive performance of the young season and actually led an opponent for the first time all year. That brief lead, however, seemed to be the catalyst that shocked the Trojans back to reality and the victory.

Leading by 10 at the half, 41-31, basically on Chris Hansen's scoring and Mike Larios' passing abilities, the Trojans went to sleep in the opening minutes of the second half, blew the lead quickly when CSM's Bob Mayer got all his six points and Dave Riley and Geoff Kuchlenz got the other two buckets, and allowed CSM to take its first lead of the 1971 season, 49-49, when guard John Crosby hit a free throw.

But Skyline went wild at that point and outscored the visitors, 23-2, in the next six minutes with center Paul Reynolds controlling the offensive boards while Matt Krilitech and Larios gave the Bulldog guards fits with their pressing defense.

Skyline also benefited from the frustration of the Bulldogs who were called for two technical fouls in the second half by two highly erratic officials. Both teams appeared confused at how the calls were going as one minute the refs would let NBA-style defense under the bucket go and the next minute call a mid-court foul on a nudge.

Intercity Connected Bike Routes Studied

Intercity connections of bike routes in San Mateo County from the city limits of San Francisco to the border of Santa Clara County are being studied by the San Mateo County Bikeway Committee, according to Roger Young, chairman of the committee and traffic engineer for the county.

The San Mateo County Bikeway Committee, formed last summer, is composed of representatives of the county engineering department, city planning staffs, police departments, state highway patrol, safety council, state division of highways, League of Women Voters and bicycle clubs.

Bicyclistsand other interested residents of San Mateo County are urged to submit suggestions on the through bike routes in the county, reports Young.

Preliminary maps of interconnecting bike routes between the cities in San Mateo County may be examined at Young's office in the engineering department, County Government Center, Redwood City.

In addition to coordinating the development of an intra-county bikeways system which will meet the present and future needs of bicyclists, the committee was formed to achieve other objectives. These include the development of criteria and standards of bike routes, the development of a continuous public information, education and enforcement program for bicycles, and the provision for a continuing evaluation of the county-wide bicycle program.

The bikeway committee, Young said, is contacting each city in San Mateo County so there is agreement on the connecting bike routes between cities, but the committee also is seeking input and suggestions from bicyclists who commute or ride bikes from one city to another to establish the most feasible and convenient through bikeway system.

down on the turf to allow (the) Hurricane quarterback . . . to score on an eight-yard run, giving the Gator ace one last shot at the record.

"Reeves cracked the Plunkett mark on a 15-yarder to Carlos Alvarez . . . as the crowd went wild. . . ."

If that reportis true, that Florida players really did literally lie on the ground to deliberately allow the other team to score, and if I had the authority, I'd award the game to Miami and dis-allow Reeves' record. If I were Reeves, I wouldn't accept such a chicken record. It's actions such as this one that can destroy a public's trust in the legitimacy of sport.

If you still believe in statistics, you've got to believe in O. J. Simpson, who some "experts" insist is a disappointment in pro ball. All O.J. has done with probably the worst team in football is manage to continually be among the top five rushers in the AFL, and rank second among all active kickoff return men.

Skyline Adult Evening Signups Before the Classes to Begin

For the first time in the history of Skyline College prospective evening college students will have the option of either registering by mail or at the college prior to the first class meeting, David P. Marin, Associate Dean of Instruction and Director of the Evening College, announced.

This new method of course registration will aid the students according to Marin. He noted that by registering by mail the students will have the advantage of first choice of classes. Those who wait to register at the college may find classes closed.

Marin declared that the deadline for registration by mail is January 21, 1972 and late registration will begin during the first week of classes starting on February 7, 1972.

As a result of this new method "there will be no more registration of students in the classroom as was the case in the past semesters, Marin explained.

Marin also announced that the Skyline College Evening Division will introduce the new registration by mail operation to San Mateo County residents and local citizens around the week of Monday, Dec. 20. The new registration kit will contain the new catalog-schedule and the registration information materials. These catalogs will be made available at the college and at the local public libraries in North San Mateo County.

Students currently enrolled in Skyline College's evening classes will have the opportunity to register for the Spring 1972 term during the week of December 13.

For those persons who do not register in December, a second opportunity to enroll at the college for the evening classes which are still open will take place on January 24-27 from 6 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. and January 29, from 9 a.m. to noon in Bldg. 1, room 135.

Good News Chapel Sets Kids' Krusade

Rev. and Mrs. Lynn Wickstrom will conduct a Kids' Krusade nightly, December 6-10, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at Good News Chapel in South San Francisco.

Joinging Rev. and Mrs. Wickstrom of Loveland, Colo., will be many puppet friends and Joey, the mischevious dummy, who find their way into the hearts of all ages in teaching moral and Biblical values.

A special program is planned for Friday evening in a ceremony with the crowning of a King and Queen of Kids' Krusade. Registration for children from ages 4 through 13 will be open at 6:30 p.m. each evening.

Reverend and Mrs. Wickstrom have traveled extensively throughout the United States and Maritime Provinces of Canada in their ministry of Child Evagnelism and adult evangelistic meetings in the past 10 years, and are in demand as speakers for boys' and girls' camps. They have conducted programs on military bases as well as having public school assembly performances.

December 12, Reverend and Mrs. Wickstrom will be featured in special services in gospel music and Bible preaching at the 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. services.

Schlesinger Moving, to Be Honored

One of the past presidents of Congregation B'nai Israel and his family will be moving to another area shortly and they will be honored following Sabbath Services on Friday .

Wolf Schlesinger, president in 1967, 1968, and 1970, his wife Johanna, daughters Vivian and Deborah, son Mark, and his mother Mrs. Martha Schlesinger will move to Los Angeles.

The officers and directors of B'nai Israel have scheduled a farewell to the Schlesinger family.

Services, conducted by Cantor Henry Greenberg, will begin at 8:30 p.m. and all are invited.

The Student Body of B'nai Israel's Religious School will have a car wash on Sunday from 13:30 p.m. to 4 p.m. The proceeds from the donations of $1 a car will go toward furthering the programs of the student body.

Confirmation Program Preparation

The program "Confirmation Preparation Including Parents" will be explained by the Rev. John J. McMullen on Monday at 8 p.m., St. Augustine Center in Westborough Square, South San Francisco.

Designed primarily for parents of teen-agers, the program is also open to other adults interested in new confirmation programs.

Reverend McMullen, associate director of the Archdiocesan Department of Adult Education, has been involved for four years in creating confirmation programs involving parents including workshops at the Teachers Faire and existing programs in Mill Valley and Terra Linda. He was ordained in 1963 and received his masters from Seattle University in Religious Education in 1971.

Discussion leaders include St. Augustine confirmation director, Sister Monica, and Frank Almeida, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Bellone, Mrs. Rena Polidori, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ruane.

Over 75 students are presently involved in St. Augustine Parish, under pastor Rev. Paul Duggan.

Demos Will Fete Edmund Brown, Jr.

Secretary of State Edmund G. Brown Jr. will be honored at a cocktail party on Saturday, 5 to 7 p.m., at the Terrace Room of the Hilton Inn at the San Francisco Airport in San Bruno. Tickets are $5 a person.

According to county Democratic chairman Al Kochman, this party will be the closing event of two days of meetings of the Democratic State Central Committee, which will cosponsor the salute to the secretary of state.

The public is invited to this and all other meetings that will be held, Kochman said.

At 2 p.m. December 10 there will be a meeting in the Gold Room of the Commission on Platform and Policy.

The executive committee of the Democratic State Central Committee will meet from 9:30 to 4:45 on Saturday. In the morning, the Northern California caucus will elect a new northern chairman to replace Jack Brooks, who has resigned.

BRIGHT LIGHTS BY LLOYD JOHNSON

Chicken Unlimited Plans For Christmas Take Out

Ed Chalkagian and his Chicken Unlimited crew are preparing for an extra busy Holiday season. A new policy of providing a variety of food fare for Holiday gatherings, with food prices varying according to the size of the group, was recently announced. The main item on the readerboard is their golden, crisp fried chicken (order any amount you would like to eat in or to take out). A phone call will order party dinners for gatherings of any size. . . . San Bruno's multi-million dollar Tanforan Park has became an overnight success, and currently riding on the crest of this success are the new Garden Restaurants located on the shopping center's lower level. Eight distinctly different restaurants, each catering to families, are now open and doing a booming business. The atmosphere is "come-as-you-are" informal, and the dining fare ranges from hotdogs through Mexican food to Chinese dishes. There is something for every taste. . . . Patrons keep praising the pastries found at Stickney's restaurants, as well they should. These mouth-watering sweets are of the highest quality and are baked in Stickney's own bakery, located behind the Hick'ry House in Redwood City. This location, by the way, is the original Stickney's, with all the other locations coming in the wake of this restaurant's success.

TOP MAN — Meet Henri Lewin, the dedicated gentleman who is responsible for one of San Francisco's most outstanding "Top of the world" showplace restaurants, cocktail lounges and entertainment centers, "Room at the Top." The newly built Tower on the 46th floor of the San Francisco Hilton Hotel is a credit to the huge Hilton chain.

Vince's Italian And Sea Food

Appetizers, seafood cocktails, soups, salads, pastas (eleven different combinations), steaks, eggs and omelettes, fresh fish (broiled, grilled), shell fish, sandwiches, desserts and a variety of Italian dishes make up the selective menu at Vince's Italian and Sea Food restaurant in San Mateo. Luncheon specials, served Monday through Friday, 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., are changed daily and include a choice of clam chowder or minestrone soup or luncheon salad with French dressing, and coffee . . . "Good cuisine demands time to prepare properly," says Demetrios Fanopoulos, genial owner of Le Bistro Rouge on Twenty-fifth Avenue, "and it is our pleasure to pamper your appetite." Such exquisite Continental dishes as Beef Bourguignon, Coq Au Vin, Beef en Croute and Poulet a la Reine are to be found on the new luncheon menu at this popular restaurant. If you're a stickler on special desserts, wait until you whet your palate on the fabulous French pastries prepared right in the Le Bistro Rouge kitchen. Voila! . . . Sid Yanoff, dapper meat cutter at Lew Lehr's Steak House, in San Francisco's Marina District, gets lots of laughs when he "interviews" patrons with his tape recorder, and then plays back the recordings.

Enjoy "Breakfast At The Ben"

"Breakfast at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel" has been a Peninsula tradition for countless years, and one look at chef Tom Delano's breakfast menu will tell you why. A big favorite is The Western, which includes eggs, bacon or sausage, hot cakes, orange juice and unlimited coffee for only $1.45. Another breakfast special is The Continental (chilled orange juice, warm Danish pastry, English muffin or toast, and coffee). You're likely to see all your church friends here on Sundays . . . Although Atherton's Lord Fletcher Inn is usually closed for regular business on Mondays, that won't be the case through the month of December. General manager Andy Ardito will be hosting several holiday parties, with large gatherings already scheduled in the reservation book for the thirteenth and twentieth . . . Numerous bonus refunds, with cash, food and cocktails being presented, is what to expect when planning your next excursion to Reno or Lake Tahoe with Park Avenue Tours. Overnight guests are also able to stay in luxurious accommodations at unusually low rates. For further information, contact one of the Bay Area's four Park Avenue Tours offices.

Christmas Dinner Gift Certificate

Have you ever thought of giving a Christmas present that can't help but please anyone, a dinner gift certificate? L'Auberge in Atherton has these beautifully engraved documents which you can purchase in any amount for gift giving. It is redeemable in food and beverage and is complete with a special envelope. You can charge it to your account or credit card. Talk to anyone on the staff, including hostess Jenny Simmons, Maitre d' Louis Frutschi or Vicki Bertochi of the office staff . . . Handsome Bill Remington is the newest addition to Dave Rasmussen's Shadows of San Mateo staff. Bill, who favors wild neckties, can be found working the plank four nights a week and one day. Prior to joining the crew at this famous San Mateo restaurant, Bill worked for the VIP Lounge. He was also in the employment of the Pioneer Hotel in Woodside for thirteen years . . . In case you were wondering: Popular Chuck Herschler is now tending daytime bar in the Rainbow Room located within the Millbrae Bowl, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sundays. Drop by and say hi — they also serve a mighty fine luncheon.

Finocchio's Lucien "Male Sophie Tucker"

Lucien, the "Male Sophie Tucker" at Finocchio's nightclub, steps out with a swingy version of the old favorite "Dark Town Strutters' Ball" in the current revue at Finocchio's on Broadway. Lucien thoroughly lives up to his trademark, singing the same songs as the late Miss Tucker, with a voice that resembles her deep-throated sound, and wearing many of the fabulous gowns formerly worn by Miss Tucker in her coast-to-coast personal appearances . . . . When it comes to preparing pizzas, whether they be small, medium or large, Enrico Romano cannot be surpassed, or "topped" as they say in the pizza business. As owner and operator of Romano's Italian restaurant, located in picturesque Rockaway Beach, Pacifica, Enrico has spent literally years in perfecting the many superb ingredients which are spread atop his mouth-watering pizzas. Our hats are off to him. . . . Gift certificates for Phil Lehr's Steakery, in downtown San Francisco, are a great Christmas gift idea for family and friends. They're available in any amount, and the lucky recipient will enjoy Lehr's famous gourmet steaks in the elegant surroundings of the Wellington Room, acclaimed the most beautiful steak house in America.

BEAUTIES THREE — The new De Castro Sisters group returned to the Garden Bar of the Miyako Hotel Tuesday night (three shows nightly, except Sunday and Monday). Don't miss them — Peggy, Marcy and Pat — they're a circus of fun!

Nick's On Santa Claus' Rest List

Nick Gust's Moonraker, a show place of Pacifica at Rockaway Beach, should be on Santa's "rest stop list." This restaurant is a natural for those who have a fancy for the nautical. To accent an evening of elegant dining, flood lights illuminate the shore of the Pacific and reflect against the nearby rolling hills. Mr. Claus would be delighted with this restful dining retreat . . . For "oleys" and good Mexican food, try the Papagayo Room, located on the lower level of the same building. And don't overlook the special coupon offer which is good through December 26 . . . 'Tis the season to be jolly — and Nick's restaurant and cocktail lounge (just across the street) is "where it's at." The Del Carlo Combo, with Mary Ann Hay sitting in on vocals, supply the dance sounds every Friday and Saturday night. Organist Jim Payer provides your favorite tunes Wednesdays through Sundays from 6 p.m. . . . Names in the news are frequently seen dining at Scotty Campbell's, a splendid restaurant in Redwood City which features exceptional food and displays an array of interesting artifacts and antiques. Petite co-owner Mary Lou Francis always supervises the serving of each guest in the usual red carpet fashion.

Hilton Inn's Bob Brisbin

Don't miss Bob Brisbin singing and playing guitar at the Hilton Inn's Mark Twain Lounge every Monday through Friday from 4:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. Brisbin, who has just returned from an around-the-world tour with USO, has a unique style and successfully combines his melodious voice with a skillful guitar. . . . Vic Scafani, co-owner of Woodlake Joe's, reminds you that his Peninsula Avenue restaurant is a perfect dining spot following the theater, a movie, ball game or any other early-evening activity. Open every night of the week until 11:30 p.m. Cocktails, of course, are served in the luxurious lounge, which seems to be a popular gathering place for all of Woodlake. . . . Because the House of Troy in San Carlos is a small, yet intimate, restaurant, early Holiday reservations are advised. It's a cozy spot for the Christmas season, and you and your family are sure to have a great time. An excellent menu of meats, sea food and fowl is offered, as well as a variety of children's plates. . . . Don Althoff, president of Ernie's Liquors, entertained Mr. and Mrs. George S. Wheeler of the Ancient Age Distilleries at Frankfort, Kentucky at the Iron Horse restaurant.

Hard Truths Behind Campaign Reforms

Whose ox is being gored? This question should always be asked when reform of campaign funding is being considered.

For under the florid rhetoric and beneath the thin patina of high principle are to be found real life politicians. These men and women struggle for existence in the greenback jungle. Their political lives and incumbencies depend upon a continuing flow of the mother's milk of politics, and they clearly perceive the nature of American political life in all its beautiful forms: fives, tens, twenties, fifties, hundreds, and so on ad electam.

That the people, their constituents, largely want the current practice discontinued is something else again. This brings about rhetorical adbivalence, and the candidate who raises tens or hundreds of thousands is often the very man to make speeches demanding reform during campaign time. A smart campaigner readily pockets big gifts and properly reports them. But his speeches — oh those speeches — emphasize the large number of small donors, the wonderful people who have sent in a torn dollar bill in a tattered envelope. Deep down, however, the office holder knows that just as he can't support his family selling pencils, he can't run a campaign on coins, ones and fives.

In a way, one can sympathize with the office holder. He knows something the people fail to see. He realizes that the average voter really doesn't care all that much about politics and government. He understands that an appallingly low number of eligibles are registered to vote, and that of those, a shockingly low percentage trudge to the polls.

He knows that coffee klatches, meetings, and door to door canvassing will barely touch his district. He understands that the species Americanus Apathus must be met where he really resides before the TV set between beers.

Furthermore, he has seen bills. Bills for stamps. Bills for stationery, envelopes and office equipment. Bills for production studios, tapes, and recordings. Bills for PR men, radio and TV time. Bills for ads in the print media. Bills for all the things he must have to tell a disinterested world that he, the candidate, is here.

So the candidate with money doubtless appreciates the stench that rises from the present system — he is in an excellent position to sense the aroma. Gathered at an academic seminar there would be probable agreement among the nation's legislators that campaign funding reform is essential if we are to remain a free people. But place these same men in a real life situation inside a legislative hall and they will inevitably vote for or against the issue in direct relation to whether or not they have campaign money.

What we need are statesmen, not politicians. But we will never get our politicians to behave like statesmen on an issue that so vitally affects their own immediate insterest. Some time ago this column made a recommendation that still appears sound. Legislate today, but defer the effective date of the leglislation for 6, 8, or 10 years, so that no office holder will feel immediately challenged. For it cannot now be predicted which party will enjoy balmy days in 1980, or which candidates will then benefit from the bounty of the nation's donors.

Finally, the American citizen should consider carefully his roll in the money mess, for his apathy is really the cause of it all. The cost of shocking him into awareness is what the money game is all about. If each TV viewer really understood that his disinterest was the fundamental force behind the next degrading and insulting 30 second dreadful, the need for cash might go down.

The average American reacts with revulsion at stories of early day purchase and sale of votes. He fails to perceive that the buying of votes continues on a vast scale today, and that he may be one of the unwitting sellers.

Pacifican Found Dead

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Grasso, 54, of 344 Seaforth Court, Pacifica, was found dead in her home Thursday afternoon by her 15-year-old son, John, when he returned home from school.

Little Darren Earp

Child's Need for Blood

In August of 1970, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Earp of 7 Michael Lane, Millbrae, welcomed their second child, a beautiful blond baby boy. To all appearances he was healthy and normal in every respect. He progressed along the normal route until August of this year, when in playing with a metal toy, he inadvertantly put it in his mouth, cutting his tongue slightly. What followed was tragic.

Little Darren's parents were panic stricken at the profuse bleeding, and it was only the quick work of doctors, who administered 18 pints of blood that Darren rallied out of danger for the time being.

The child is a hemophiliac, and will be for the rest of his life, unless science comes up with a new concept of treatmentl or a new miracle drug.

He is treated regularly at the Stanford Research Center, but any type of blood donated at the Peninsula Memorial Blood Bank in Burlingame in his name will be credited to his account.

Game time each evening will be 7:30 p. m. and 9:30 p.m.

The first evening will match two league champions in the first game of an excellent doubleheader: Placer High of Auburn (Sierra Foothill Champions) vs. Westmoor (NPL Champins).

The second game of the night matches a tough WCAL competitor, St. Ignatius vs. the host team, Jefferson High School. The second evening, Westmoor and Jefferson exchange opponents. Both evenings promise to be exciting, with all four teams playing a very entertaining, action-packed style of basketball.

If you like excitement in basketball, plan on being at Jefferson High School both nights.

Admission for adults is $1.50, or an advance purchase for the two evenings is $2.50.

For students of the participating schools, one night admission is 75c. An advance pass for the two evenings is $1.

For purchase of advance passes, call Mrs. Harriet O'Neill, 992-0650 or Mrs. Larry Reed 755-9033.
